

Join experts in litigation, restorative justice, and legislative advocacy at NARSOL's twelfth annual conference for three days of intensive, informational, and educational training about how to reform the nation's most oppressive and destructive laws.

The DoubleTree-RTP is located at 4810 Page Creek Lane, Durham, NC just a five minute shuttle ride from Raleigh-Durham International Airport. NARSOL has arranged a special rate of $107/night for registered guests. Price includes two complimentary breakfasts per room. Visit conference.narsol.org to register today (conference registration fee does not include the daily hotel room rate).

NARSOL is the nation's oldest civil rights organization exclusively dedicated to defending the constitutional liberties of registered citizens and their families.

NARSOL opposes dehumanizing registries and works to eliminate discrimination, banishment, and vigilantism against persons accused or convicted of sexual offenses through the use of impact litigation, public education, legislative advocacy, and media outreach in order to reintegrate and reconcile affected individuals and restore their constitutional rights.
